Irregularities in PSUs

1285. SHRI JALALUDIN ANSARI:
SHRI GAYA SINGH:

Will the Minister of INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news-item captioned "A Minar of shame; How PSUs drained 150 crores published" in "The Hindustan Times" dated 4th February, 1999; and

(b) if so, the details thereof and Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF INDUSTRY (SHRI SIKANDER BAKHAT): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. SCOPE is a registered society under the registration of Society Act. No budgetary support or grants-in-aid are provided to SCOPE by the Government. SCOPE accounts were got audited by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India. In their report (No. 4 of 1998) C&AG of India for the year ended March 31, 1997 has pointed out that the project cost had scaled up more than three times from the initial estimates of Rs. 50 crores. C&AG has also observed several irregularities like irregular payment of establishment charges, inadmissible payment on escalation in delayed civil work and payment of revision on labour escalation formula. Other observations made, include use of spurious fire fighting material, over payment to contractors and non-recovery of amount spent on watch and ward of site.

The C&AG report is now under the examination by the Public Accounts Committee.
